

I feel that BPL offers little potential benefit but may have horrendous negative consequences to all HF communications. Real time tests have conclusively demonstrated this many times and have rendered the spectrum unusable. It should NOT be implemented unless it is absolutely harmless to others, particularly licensed users, and causes no interference.